TRAFFIC ADVISORY

DOT Announces Traffic Modifications for the Ravens vs. Rams Game at M&T Bank Stadium

The Baltimore City Department of Transportation announced the traffic and parking modifications in effect for the Baltimore Ravens vs. the St. Louis Rams game on Sunday, October 14, 2007 at 1:00 p.m. at M&T Bank Stadium. Please be advised that all parking restrictions and residential permit parking regulations in the vicinity of the stadium will be strictly enforced. Ticket holders who do not have a parking permit for any of the stadium lots are strongly encouraged to use the metro, light rail or carpool. Fans choosing to drive to the game should park at commercial lots and avoid area neighborhoods.

Parking Control Agents will enforce all posted parking restrictions for the safety of everyone, and vehicles parked in violation will be ticketed and towed. The Fallsway Impound Lot will remain open 2 hours after the conclusion of the game. Citizens with questions concerning the location of their vehicle should contact a police officer or call (410) 396-3050.

The following traffic modifications will be in affect beginning at 8:00 a.m. Sunday, October 14, 2007 due to construction on the Russell Street Viaduct.

- Two (2) lanes northbound (inbound) on Russell Street will be open from 8:00 a.m. until game begins to accommodate football fans.
- Two (2) lanes southbound (outbound) will be open on Russell Street to exit the game and will remain until traffic dissipates.

Motorists should be aware that special parking restrictions will be in effect in the vicinity of the stadium. In addition, the Department of Transportation's Special Traffic Enforcement Officers (STEO's) will assist the Baltimore City Police with the movement of traffic in the downtown area.
